

Emergencies happen and you may be facing a lot of unknowns at the moment. Please know that staff and faculty are working to ensure that your learning needs are met appropriately without too much disruption. Below are some resources to help you adjust to these ever changing times.

1. Stay Informed

Your instructors will be contacting you via email and Moodle announcements. It is important to review these communications in a timely manner. Be sure to know how to do the following:

- Login to Your Moodle account
- Login to Your Gmail account
- View and reply to Moodle announcements
- View and reply to emails

3. Find Necessary Resources

There are resources available for students lacking access to a laptop or stable Internet connection. Review any of the resources below for items that pertain to you.

- I need access to an Internet connection!
- Vital Source - Textbooks
- Cengage - Textbooks

WEATHERING THE STORM

2. Navigate Your Moodle Course

Many of your assignments will be submitted or completed via Moodle. It is important to know the basics of navigating Moodle. Below are resources for how to complete specific tasks within Moodle.

- Submitting an Assignment
- Taking a Quiz/Exam in Moodle
- Replying to a Discussion Post
- Edit Your Forum Post
- Check Your Moodle Gradebook

4. Stay Organized

With so many things changing in your courses, you might be reliving that first-week-of-class confusion at finals-week pace. Utilize the tips below to stay on task and finish out the semester.

- Check your Moodle announcements for any new information.
- Review the (latest) syllabus for any new information or changes.
- Find a quiet, distraction-free area to access your online courses.
- Save/create a checklist for assignments that need to be completed.
- Develop a study calendar.