How to Apply:

- Submit this College Housing Application as soon as possible, preferably at least one semester before you plan to attend TSTC.
- Enclose a $200 deposit (per student) when you submit this application. Your deposit should be a personal check, certified check, credit card or money order.
- Please write your permanent (home) address on all checks. Family housing residents are not required to pay the deposit until move-in date.
- Include a $30 non-refundable application fee with your deposit and the release of background information sheet.
- Prior to enrollment, you will be notified by the housing office of your acceptance into college housing and your room assignment. If housing is not available, you will be so notified and contacted again if a vacancy becomes available.
- Rent for single student housing is due in full at registration.
- The first rent payment for family housing is due at registration. Rent is then due on the first of each month thereafter.
- All single campus housing apartments are furnished and rent includes utilities. You must provide your own linens, cooking utensils and personal items.
- If you would like to room with someone in particular, please provide their name(s):
